

Low Carbon Accelerator is UK's leading clean energy Venture Capital Investor

Low Carbon Accelerator has been cited as the most active UK Venture Capital (VC) investor in new energy sector and fifth most active in the world, recent research by New Energy Finance shows. The report, which ranks VC/PE firms according to their 2007 deal-flow, highlights a record breaking year in which $13bn of VC and PE was invested into clean energy companies, a 43% increase on 2006.

Mark Shorrock quote: "This recognition as the UK's most active investor in the low-carbon arena illustrates LCA's continuing commitment and expertise in the sector. Our deal flow led to 13 investments during 2007 alone, and the pipeline of excellent opportunities continues to grow. We look forward to continuing our expansion and success through 2008."
